THE PRESENTATION

INSTRUCTIONAL LEVEL: INTERMEDIATE

Sexuality issues can feel challenging in psychotherapy. Some psychotherapists feel unprepared to delve into the issues because they haven't had sufficient training in human sexuality. Others feel challenged by the complexities and mysteries of common presenting problems such as the effects of trauma on sexuality or the influence of desire on couple sexuality.

This presentation will provide expansive models of sexual response and new approaches to standard sex therapy techniques.

Case material will illustrate the integration of systems, psychodynamic, and cognitive behavioral thinking.

THE PRESENTER
