The Southeast Florida Association for Psychoanalytic Psychology (SEFAPP), a local chapter of the Society for Psychoanalysis and Psychoanalytic Psychology, Division 39, of the American Psychological Association, is a non-profit, 501(c)(6) organization. According to the IRS, Contributions to section 501(c)(6) organizations are not deductible as charitable contributions on the donor's federal income tax return. They may be deductible as trade or business expenses if ordinary and necessary in the conduct of the taxpayer's business. SEFAPP is a multi-disciplinary organization of primarily mental health professionals who are committed to furthering the understanding and growth of psychoanalytic ideas and practices throughout the South Florida tri-county area. SEFAPP offers professionals and students outstanding educational seminars on a wide variety of contemporary issues and provides a community to like minded people at varying stages of professional development. Through these efforts, SEFAPP supports the availability and quality of mental health services in Palm Beach, Broward, and Dade counties. Visit SEFAPP at www.sefapp.com
